[Times-Dispatch.]

WARRENTON, VA., September 22.—

Among the numerous people who are continually coming to Warrenton to hunt up houses is to be found Captain A. H.

Waddell, late of the British army. The captain paid a visit to this town during the horse show, and although it must have been seen at a decided disadvantage during that week of thunder storms and mud, yet the spirit of the place seemed to appeal to him, and he has decided to increase by one the ranks of the little English colony which has so long been a fixture here.

The Warrenton Hunt Club intends to open the hunting season soon after the from an attack of typhoid, and expects to resume his duties in Richmond before long.

Mr. Stuart White left Warrenton Friday for William and Mary College.

BERRYVILLE, VA.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

BERRYVILLE, VA., Sept. 22.—An occasion of much interest to a large circle of friends in Virginia and Maryland was the celebration of Mr. Charles S.

Lee's eightieth birthday, which occurred at his home, "Ellenore," in Clarke county, on Tuesday. Besides Mr. Lee's children—Dr. Page Lee, of Washington, Dr.

Edward Lee and Mrs. Lee, and Mr. and Mrs. Phillips Lee, of Norfolk, and Mrs.

Collette, of Winchester—the following guests sat down to the beautiful dinner served: The guests included Judge W.

rices of the Blue Ridge Hunt Club was marked by a series of accidents, in which a runaway horse swerved out of
